Virginia Repertory Theatre Presents
It's a Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play adapted by Joe Landry

Richmond, VA – Virginia Repertory Theatre presents the fun holiday favorite, It's a Wonderful Life: A Live Radio Play December 3, 2021 – January 2, 2022 at the November Theatre downtown in the Arts District. It was adapted by Joe Landry from the story 'The Greatest Gift' by Philip Van Doren Stern.

The entire town of Bedford Falls is brought to life, as the play tells the beloved story of irreplaceable George Bailey, in the form of a live 1940s radio broadcast.

The play is set on the stage and auditorium of Studio A at WBFR in Manhattan, New York on Christmas Eve 1946. Six actors play a few dozen characters in this hilarious re-enactment, complete with live Foley artists, who make all the sounds needed in the play – cars driving off in the distance, door bells ringing, ice cracking, footsteps, glass breaking and many, many more. Watching and listening to the Foley artists, who make all of the sounds that are important to the plot, adds to the realism as well as the humor of the play.

"It could not be a better time for Virginia Rep to present this American classic about the value of life and importance of community," said Managing Director Phil Whiteway. "We recommend the play for the entire family, ages 5 and up. Very young children may have trouble sitting through a full-length play of 90 minutes with no intermission.”
