Virginia Rep Presents
Beehive: The '60s Musical
April 8 – May 15 at the November Theatre

Richmond, VA – It was a revolutionary time of female role models with big hair and high boots. It was the 1960s. Couples danced to the music of the early “girl groups” such as the Chiffons, the Shirelles and the Supremes.

Beehive delivers the pop, soul and rock and roll of yesteryear! Six actresses spotlight Diana Ross, Leslie Gore, Tina Turner, Aretha Franklin, Janis Joplin, and Carole King, and perform over 25 hit songs with some back stories about the pieces and the period.

This Broadway musical of the mid-1980s was created by the late Larry Gallagher, who envisioned that an on-stage band would celebrate the era along with the cast.

Some of the many songs that are performed in Beehive include "The Name Game," "Walking in the Rain," "My Boyfriend's Back," "One Fine Day," "Be My Baby," "Abraham, Martin and John," "River Deep/Proud Mary," "Cry Baby," and "Make Your Own Kind of Music."

Dancing also plays a big part in Beehive. The Monkey, the Pony, the Jerk, the Swim, and the Mashed Potato are some of the funky dance steps of the '60s.

Beehive will be directed and choreographed by Leslie Owens Harrington, who most recently directed Pinkalicious for Virginia Rep's Children's Theatre.
