presents
Santa's Enchanted Workshop
Book, Music and Lyrics by Richard Giersch

Richmond, VA -- Virginia Repertory Theatre is thrilled to welcome audiences back to the November Theatre with socially-distanced performances of Santa's Enchanted Workshop, beginning Saturday, December 12, 2020. Revel in this joyous holiday musical at the historic November Theatre, 114 W. Broad Street, Richmond, VA, 23220, through Sunday, December 20, 2020.

For Stanley, Christmas has lost some of its magic. Stanley and his baby sister, SuSu, set out to find out about Christmas by traveling to the North Pole. Trapped in a blizzard, they wind up in a dilapidated gas station run by a kindly mysterious old man named Nick who shows them the wonders of imagination and helps to bring his run down gas station to life as a magic toyshop. Join Stanley as he finds his renewed Christmas spirit and the real meaning of Christmas.

Taking Precautions to Protect Your Health

This production will be socially distanced. Only 121 of the 553 seats at the November Theatre are for sale - less than 25% of capacity - to allow for ample distance between patrons. Face masks are mandatory for staff and audience members (ages 2 and up) while inside the theatre. Virginia Rep will be following all regulations established by the Virginia Department of Health and the Virginia Phase 3 guidelines for performing arts venues. We will offer touchless ticketing and playbills, air purification, hand sanitizer stations throughout the lobby, and other safety protocols, to ensure the safety of both the audience and performers.
