Virginia Repertory Theatre Announces
2024-2025 Season

Featuring Broadway hits and family favorites including Waitress, Fat Ham, and *Charlie and the Chocolate Factory

Richmond, VA – Virginia Rep announces the 2024-2025 Season: an exciting line-up of musicals, plays, and special presentations at all three locations, including the Signature Season at the November Theatre downtown, the Barksdale Season at Hanover Tavern, and the Family Season in the Jessie Bogese Theatre at the Virginia Rep Center for Arts and Education. Partner productions in the Theatre Gym and additional community partnerships will be announced at a later time.

The 2024-25 season begins in August with a spine-tingling production of Stephen King's twisted tale of fan fervor gone wrong, Misery; and from there the excitement builds! Virginia Rep audiences can enjoy the sweet treats of the Broadway smash musical Waitress, with its romantic score by Grammy winner Sara Bareilles; and the season includes a unique collaboration with Norfolk's Virginia Stage Company, with a coproduction of the Tony-nominated phenomenon Fat Ham. There's entertainment for every age and taste with Dial M for Murder, and the Sherlock Holmes mystery Moriarty at Hanover Tavern, Charlie and the Chocolate Factory over the holidays at the November Theatre, and three delightful shows based on beloved books at the Virginia Rep Center's Jessie Bogese Theatre: Grace for President, Love that Dog, and Mo Willem's Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus.

"Our 2024-2025 Signature and Barksdale programming will offer VA Rep audiences a season of gripping dramas, Hitchcockian mysteries, heartwarming musicals, and sharp-witted comedies," said Artistic Director of Programming Rick Hammerly. "We're especially excited to partner with Virginia Stage Company to bring the Pulitzer Prize-winning Fat Ham to the Richmond community. And the opportunity to conclude our season with Sara Bareilles' sweetly uplifting musical, Waitress, is...well...icing on the cake."

The recent renovations to the Virginia Rep Center for Arts and Education will heighten the experience for everyone attending the 2024-2025 Family Season. Upgrades and enhancements throughout the building from the bright, expansive main lobby to the spacious downstairs ballroom provide perfect spaces for pre-show mingling with the family (and a cookie from Whisk) or a post-show workshop with your school group.

"Live theater is a place of enchantment, learning, and empowerment for kids--a safe space to learn about themselves and the world they live in. This Family Season is all about kids (and birds) achieving their goals in both real life, and in some pretty fantastical settings," shared Todd D. Norris, Artistic Director of Education. "We can't wait to welcome families and schools to join us in the Jessie Bogese Theatre at the Virginia Rep Center."

Juicy, a Black queer Southern kid, already has a lot on his plate when his father's ghost appears, demanding vengeance. As generations clash during the family's backyard barbecue, Juicy must confront the legacy of violence in which he has been raised and decide the man he wants to be in James Ijames's Pulitzer Prize-winning play fresh from its Tony-nominated Broadway run.

Waitress featuring the music of Grammy-winning singer-songwriter Sara Bareilles, celebrates the power of friendship, dreams, the family we choose, and the quality of a well-baked pie.
